MIGHT IT NOT HURT GRANT, TOO?

If the state of Nevada accepted the government land grant and went into the business of selling and leasing lands might it not interfere, though not purposely, with a certain colonization scheme that Grant Miller, Socialist candidate for United States senator, is interested in?

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Certain Republican papers and speakers continually remind us that the Democrats are not entitled to credit for passing the child-labor bill, because the thought was of Republican conception. But all the same it took a Democratic administration to put it on the statute books, as was also done in the case of the tariff commission.

ANNE ALSO WROTE SOME LETTERS

"Would that mine enemy write a letter." How appropriately can that old saw be applied to the epistles which Anne Martin wrote Senator Key Pittman, wherein it was stated that it was not advisable to present the Susan B. Anthony amendment to congress at the present time. And that was in July, just a few weeks before congress adjourned.

WHEN TAFT WAS SAFE AND SANE

It is only a little over a year ago, to be more exact, June 4, 1915, that former President Taft said in the course of an address at Bryn Mawr:

"If we had a jingo in the White House this country would now be at war with Germany. Instead our chief executive is a man who appreciates his responsibility and realizes that, considering the temper of the people, a turn of his hand would plunge us into an international conflict."

A LITTLE BIT IRRITATING

It must be pretty irritating to Representative Roberts to sit on a stage with Sam Platt and hear him rant of the viciousness of the Pittman land bill, a measure which he, Roberts, worked in behalf of before the congressional committees, and which on more than one occasion he supported on the floor of the house. But Roberts is placed in the position of a lot of Republicans this year. They have to follow the leader, though weighted with lead.

VOTE FOR THOSE WHO WILL SUPPORT WILSON

While there is no possible doubt of President Wilson's re-election efforts in his behalf should not be let up on for a single moment. Make his success so emphatic that he will feel that with the new governmental policies which he will inaugurate in the coming administration he will have the encouragement of nine-tenths of the nation. And in this connection do not fail to remember that he needs a congress in harmony with his views. Not only in the senate, but in the house as well. Nevadans should play no favorites, but support men who will support Wilson.

HAVE PROVED A BOOMERANG

It only remained for Senator Pittman to visit Carson and explain the real purposes of the land bill that has been given his name, to thoroughly dissipate the impression which Sam Platt, Grant Miller, the Reno Gazette and the Nevada State Journal have attempted to create in the minds of the people that the measure was "conceived in iniquity and born in sin." In his speech in this city Monday night Senator Pittman went into the bill in detail and his interpretation of it was so analytical, so thorough, and the beneficent purposes of the measure made so apparent that many of those who heard him and had come to hear him with prejudiced minds began to wonder how they had been misled on so important a question.

In Senator Pittman's discourse he made no attack on those who had assailed his bill; on the contrary, he proved the bill's worth by argument and showed that the so-called vicious clauses, on which so much stress had been laid, were established government precedents and without which no land grant bill had passed congress in forty years. Senator Pittman in his talk thoroughly and absolutely vindicated himself of the charges that had been made against him by his political enemies and it goes without saying that the latter will have a hard time explaining if when they come to this city they attempt to reiterate the assertions they have made in other parts of the state and which have been given publicity through the medium of the Reno dailies.

The assaults on the Pittman land bill have proved a boomerang.

RAILROAD MEN WANT WILSON

Leaders of the four railroad brotherhoods in Cleveland have set in motion a plan to organize Wilson clubs among the employees at all the principal terminals throughout the country. W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, has issued a call to all members to join the club.

A meeting will be held to organize a local Wilson club. Using this slogan: "Remember our political friends and defeat our enemies." Lee has called upon members of his organization and all other railroad brotherhoods in Cleveland to attend the meeting. Lee's appeal is as follows:

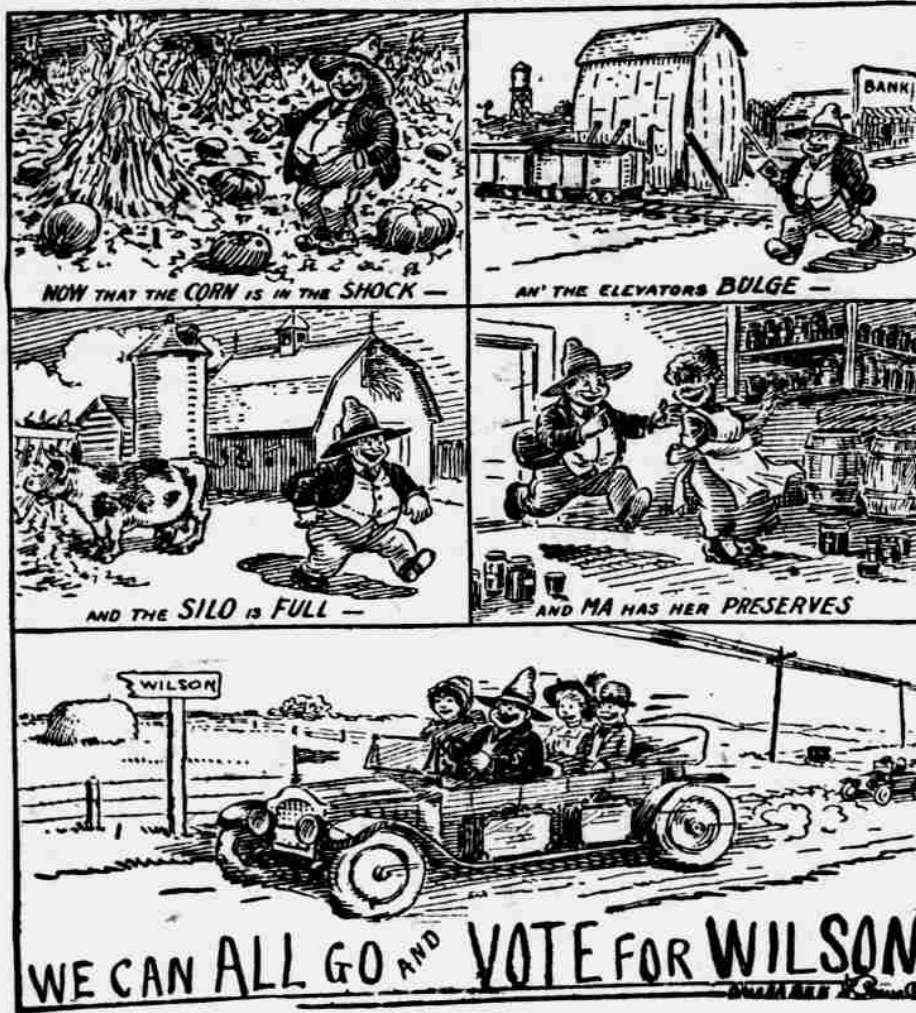

"It is unnecessary to say that if President Wilson is defeated the eight-hour law will be repealed, or at least amended to meet the views as publicly expressed by Mr. Hughes, and if President Wilson is re-elected with a working majority in the house and senate he will be in a position to carry out his proposed legislative plan in the interests of the workers, as the Adamson law is only the beginning of what will be necessary to insure the wage earning class of this country an absolute eight-hour day."

The foregoing announcement from the east has aroused much interest in Sparks among the local railroad men who are contemplating a similar move. Sentiment among railroad workers at Nevada's chief railroad center is apparently strong for Wilson and Pittman, while it is a practical certainty that an organized expression of this sympathy will have a very commanding effect in the election of the Democratic members of the county ticket.

Sam Platt following the lead of his worthy exemplar, Candidate Hughes, has substituted criticism for reason in his stump through the state and it is winning out just as it is winning out with the noisily-reserved justice. But that is Republican argument this year. Their munition stores have been so thoroughly depleted by Democratic aggression and accomplishment they lack even the powder to make a noise.

(With thanks to a Republican newspaper for the suggestion.)

SENATOR KEY PITTMAN'S RECORD

Senator Pittman's record has been one of successful achievement, active labor, loyalty to President Wilson and constructive legislation. The most important of his accomplishments for Nevada can be summed up in the following:

Assisted in prevailing upon the government to purchase silver when it was falling in price in 1915. Other governments followed the example of ours and the price has advanced steadily since.

Arranged to have the price of timber on the forest reserves cut in half to benefit settlers and prospectors.

Had cyanides placed on the free list, reducing the cost of the product to mining men of Nevada.

Passed a bill validating the title of lot owners along the Central Pacific right of way at Winnemucca, Carlin, Elko and other towns on the Southern Pacific.

Obtaining recognition of department of the interior of the upper Carson valley as a part of the Truckee-Carson project.

Had two land districts created in the state of Nevada for the convenience and economy of those seeking land.

Passed through the senate a bill for the granting of 7,000,000 acres of land to the state of Nevada for the exclusive use and benefit of the public schools and the University of Nevada.

Passed through the senate a bill to encourage the development of subsurface and artesian waters.

Introduced bill providing for enlarged homesteads.

Introduced bill providing that settlers might develop and prove up on homesteads without continuous residence.

Obtained enlarged appropriation for the Carson Indian school.

Obtained $30,000 for support of Washoe and homeless Indians in Nevada.

Assisted in securing appropriation for the extermination of rabid coyotes in Nevada.

Assisted the Wilson administration actively in the passage of the Federal Reserve bank law, the Farm Loan law, the Eight-Hour Day law, the Child Labor law, the Inheritance Tax law, the Income Tax law, the Good Roads law, and all other humane and progressive legislation.
